Statement for Publication

The overall impression of the Inspectors is that students on the summer camps are well looked after and are receiving competent teaching from committed staff. Angle Education has made a lot of progress following the mandatory requirements resulting from the inspection last year. This is particularly evident in the systems and policies it has put in place in the areas of welfare, safeguarding and Prevent duty.

Standards of academic management and the supervision of students, both on-site and off-site, are high. The quality of teaching and residential premises is high. Angle Education works closely with an accommodation management company called 'Find Digs'. Student satisfaction and staff morale are high. It is clear that the Italian Group Leaders, 'Find Digs' staff and Angle staff work well together. The Chinese teachers accompanying the Chinese group were also very positive about the organisation.
