Statement for Publication

The school continues to provide a good service to junior and adult students. The Directors have responded well and promptly to the challenges resulting from the last inspection. Other improvements have also taken place in terms of policies, manuals and handbooks as well as the provision of training in Prevent. A good deal of work has gone into the syllabus and this now needs an accompanying scheme of work strategy to make it a flexible tool for course planning.

The School Directors are very much hands-on in the running of the organisation and there is a friendly, family atmosphere in the premises.
