Statement for Publication

Interlanguage offers a high standard of service to students on pre-sessional courses ahead of their studies at some of the most prestigious business schools in Europe. There is a warm and friendly atmosphere underpinned by a commitment to provide an executive standard of service to the small annual cohort of students.

The China Works building offers a good set of facilities and a high standard of meeting rooms in particular. It is a safe and pleasant setting with good access to central London and accommodation options for the students.

Teaching is predominantly delivered through 1-1 lessons but the inclusion of workshops and group debates offers variation in the course and is well-received by students. The teaching staff have worked together for several years and there is a sense of friendship and professionalism.
